

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Saturday-Monday October 12-14, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson

Bordering states luring students

Senate OKs revised liability bill

EPA threatens to pull funding

MSU faculty: We want more input

Judge refuses to remove himself from jury award case

Conerly to retire from UMC post

Former House speaker dies

License, service sign-up linked

The Sun Herald Biloxi

House, Senate return for more work on civil justice issues

Is justice for sale in Mississippi?

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo

EDITORIAL: Tort Reform II

Transportation is key to state's development

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, TN

Editorial 10/13: Vote yes on Tennessee lottery

Senate sends 2nd tort bill to House

Hattiesburg American

Let's retain nonpartisan elections

State investigators find no evidence of price gouging

Meridian Star

- Clarke County picks up the pieces
- Musgrove played with lives — Cassreino
- Accountability

The Natchez Democrat

Legislature in session again today

Natchez needs to keep up fight for reform

The Greenwood Commonwealth

Senate giving House chance to vote on caps

